

MCRGO AR-15 BASIC RIFLE CLASS

If you have an AR-15 rifle, or are interested in learning more about this modern sporting rifle The Detroit Sportsmen's Congress will be conducting a 1-day rifle basics class taught using the AR-15 rifle. It is intended for gunowners new to (or interested in) the AR-15 platform, or those who may be looking to enhance their basic rifle skills and knowledge. The class will be taught by rifle instructors dual certified by MCRGO and the NRA. The class starts in the morning with classroom instruction, then moves to the rifle range for afternoon live fire exercises (where the student will receive 1 on 1 coaching from a DSC certified instructor).

CLASS OBJECTIVES:

- Review the history, design, and key parts and components of the AR-15.
- Review how to disassemble/re-assemble, and clean and lubricate the AR-15.
- Review ammunition availability and compatability for the AR-15.
- Review the fundamentals of rifle shooting and marksmanship which apply to all rifles.
- Understand rifle safety, handling, and storage which applies to all rifles.
- Understand rifle sight in and zero, including off-set, which applies to all rifles.
- Conduct live-fire range shooting exercises with with an AR-15, including range safety procedures.

WHAT TO BRING: Your AR-15, 2 magazines, 80 rounds of ammunition, and eye & ear protection. If you need an AR-15 and/or ammunition let DSC know. All triggers must meet 4# minimum. No binary or set triggers, no bump stocks. SBRs/AR pistols, or other modifications from a typical "mil-spec rifle" cannot be used for this class. Your AR-15 must be sighted in at 50 yds prior to the class.
