Black Powder

It sure has been rainy lately. The July Black Power woods walk was essentially rained out. I supposed it was for the best as the mosquitos have been almost unbearable because of the rain. But hope springs eternal.

We have many special events coming up this month. The monthly Black Powder Woods Walk is Sunday, Aug. 8. We also have a Centerfire Pistol Woods Walk Aug. 21. These special woods-walks are getting more popular all the time. Your targets are hanging steel plates in various sizes and distances. It's a both more challenging and fun than just punching holes in paper when you hear the target hit and see it move.

Finally, we have a very special event to honor and celebrate the DSC Range Officers volunteers. This special woods walk event is Saturday, Aug. 14, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The ROs shoot for a $1 fee and get an excellent opportunity to check out the Black Powder range. You do not have to shoot black powder. Most modern guns and ammo are allowed (no AP or ammo that attracts a magnet). Thanks again for being an RO at the DSC.

Further details on these events can be found in flyers on the Coming Events page of the DSC website or elsewhere in this issue of the P&K.

Rifle

The Detroit Sportsmen's Congress is hosting two Civilian Marksmanship Program Games matches Sunday, Aug. 1. starting at noon.

First is for Vintage Military Rifles such as old Mausers and Lee-Enfields. The second is for M1 Carbines. They follow one after the other.

These matches are a good way to shoot your old military rifles. They are also a great way to try out rifle competition as these events are low key and fun. Further details on these events can be found on the Coming Events page of the DSC website.

With summer starting to wind down., rifle leagues are in full swing, but attendance is still low. Perhaps the ammunition shortage is now getting to everybody. If you have some ammunition, why not give one of the leagues a try.

We have four different leagues. There is service rifle, smallbore silhouette, sporting rifle and the new tactical prone league. I have described these leagues many times in these articles, so I won't bore you again with the details.

Instead, please explore the Rifle Page of the DSC website. Perhaps you will find a league that you would like to shoot. I hope so and I hope to see you on the range.

Skeet & Trap

Greetings from Skeet & Trap!

As always, a lot to report this month.....

We will start with trap. A big congratulations to the De LaSalle High School Trap Team who placed 6th in the State of Michigan Trap Championships held in June at Mason, Mich. Special thanks go to their coaches, Dave Girard and Mike Jolly. Their hard work is obviously paying off. It should also be noted, that De LaSalle practices every Wednesday at DSC.

Come on out and shoot some trap; we have an excellent facility and many individuals who would be more than happy to provide any insight or instruction if needed.

Next up is Skeet and the results of the Evans Memorial shoot held at DSC July 3 & 4. The winner for 12 gauge was Mike Delgado with a 99/100. The 20 gauge winner was Andrew Bielman with a 99/100, 28 gauge was won by Mike Delgado with a 98/100 and 67 gauge (.410) by Andrew Bielman again with a 95/100.

The doubles winner was also Andrew Bielman and HOA winner was Mike Delgado. Excellent shooting!

The next registered shoots are: Aug. 7 & 8 – Hanaford Open, Aug. 25 – Doubles Mini, Sept. 6 – Labor Day Little Gun and Oct. 23 & 24 – Trick or Treat Open

Please contact Rick Trawinski @ ricktraw@gmail.com for more information!

Thank you to Sherry Studer and Sula Saylor for volunteering to staff the Pro-Shop on a temporary basis. However, we are still looking for a Pro-Shop manager. If anyone is interested, please contact Bonnie Palmer @ 586-739-3501

The committee needs to mention again that we now have a full-time range officer, David Brown, and he has been a great addition to both Skeet and Trap and the DSC as a whole. Come on out and meet him, a very welcoming personality!!

As you can see, a there's lot going on so please come out and join us!!!

The next Skeet & Trap Committee meeting is Aug. 12 at 6 p.m. This is an open meeting to all DSC members. Please believe me when I say that the current committee wants and appreciates suggestions and constructive criticism any member may have. We truly want to make this the best venue at the DSC. Please help us achieve that.

Current range hours are Wednesday & Thursday 10 a.m. – 6 p.m., Friday: 4 p.m. to dusk (thank you Woman of Aim) Saturday & Sunday: 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. Note that the last shooting board goes out 30 minutes prior to closing.

Two more things; come out and try our new 5-Stand set-up. It's lot of fun and some challenging presentations. The venue is fast paced and only takes about 15 minutes to shoot. Give it a try and you will be hooked! Last and as always, if anyone has any questions or comments regarding Skeet & Trap, please do not hesitate to contact me at 248-561-8750. I will return your call promptly!

Shotgun Class

The Detroit Sportsmen's Congress hosted the National Rifle Association's Basics Shotgun class July 18. Ten shooters completed the accredited course taught by six instructors during a 1-day program.

The basic class returned after a 3-year hiatus when members started requesting skeet and trap instruction in March. The newly re-formed Skeet and Trap Committee has begun a campaign to promote this shooting discipline and find new shotgun shooters.

Students were able to apply their classroom instruction on three different ranges during the practical portion of the program, skeet, trap and 5-stand. The class was divided into three groups and rotated through each venue. This gave the shooters an opportunity to receive specific individual attention from the instructors.

DSC will offer the class again annually, or sooner if there is enough interest. Call Shotgun Committee member Don Purdie at 248-561-8750 for more information about Skeet and Trap or if you're interested in attending a NRA Basics Shotgun Class.

Archery

Well July has come and gone, and the Fall 3-D Archery league has started thanks to a lot of hard work.

We had many downed trees on the archery course due to the storms in late June and July. Trees fell and caused major damage to one stand and one of the smaller bridges.

In addition, several trees blocked the trails along the course. Getting this league going would not have been possible without all the effort at the Monday work bees.

Thank you to all those who came out and cleared the trails in addition to the normal work that needs to be done to get course set up. I would also like to thank Dean Burnett for only getting the tractor stuck once.

The Rise of the American Cowboy

The era of the American cowboy began at the end of the Civil War in 1865. The turning point occurred in the 1890s. Somewhere around 1890, the cattle ranges became fenced in and the growth of the railroads had eliminated the need of long cattle drives. Thus the period of the “old-fashioned cowboy” came to an end, and the working ranch cowboy began to evolve.

Oh, To Be a Cowboy

The typical cowboy was aged between 17 and 28. Some research indicates they may have started as early as age 13 or 14 to start acquiring their cowhand skills. His life consisted of more than driving cattle to market. With the excitement of the spring roundup being over, the cowboy’s life settled down to hard routine chores. There were all the chores of ranch work to be done, which were never ending. Working cattle was some of the hardest work. There were horses to be broken, cattle to be doctored for disease such as screwworm, stuck cattle to be pulled out of bogs created by spring rains, and to be on lookout for rustlers. After hours of boredom riding fence, usually alone, and performing other menial chores around the ranch, they longed for the adventure of the next spring roundup.

Life on the Range

Range life was harsh. The cowboy lived in his saddle for days on end, rode in blizzard and heat wave and was lucky to eat one good meal a day. The ranch bunkhouse he bedded down in was often a sod hut sunk into a hillside, sometimes a log cabin, its walls covered with newspaper to keep out the winds. In summer, the bunkhouse would crawl with lice and bedbugs, and snakes and rats would be attracted inside by the shade. To while away the boredom of the evenings, the cowhands would read, compose songs and poems, play practical jokes on each other and tell tall tales. The cowboy’s evenings were often hedged by the petty restrictions of the ranch owner. It’s said that Charles Goodnight even forbade the game of mumble-peg on his spread. For all this the cowboy was paid between $25 and $50 a month. Most cowboys accumulated nothing beyond the clothes on their back and their saddles. Some cowboys did not even own the horse they rode on.

The history of the American cowboy covered a brief, but incredible, span in history. But the true grit, strength of character, hard work, and independent nature of the cowboy still lives large today. Here, at the DSC, the spirit of the American cowboy is best exemplified by the dedication, hard work ethic and strength of character in our Cowboy Committee members. In essence, one can say that we still “Live the Dream” of the “golden days” of the American cowboy.
