

80th Anniversary Battle of the Bulge Memorial Shoot

Dec. 15, 2024 10 a.m. to Noon DSC Rifle Range

Come out and commemorate the 80th Anniversary of the Start of the Battle of the Bulge.

Dec. 16, 1944, after a 90-minute artillery barrage, the German 6th Panzer Army broke Allied lines in the Ardennes, starting a battle that would last until Jan. 28, 1945. One of the most famous quotes of WWII came out of this battle. During the siege of Bastogne, the Germans demanded surrender, Brig. Gen. Anthony McAuliffe responded “Nuts” in frustration. The reply had to be explained to the Germans as “Go to Hell”.

This is a rimfire fun shoot, 20 shots total at 50 yards. Ten shots at each of two “German tanks”. Points are awarded for different hits on the tanks. Standing shooting only, if shooting for a prize. Bench shooting allowed but does not qualify for prize money. Scope recommended.

Fees: Adults $10, Juniors $5. Fee includes two tank targets, additional targets are $2 per pair. The prize pool is $1 from each entry fee and the $2 additional target fee.
