Sara Uelmen in the field with her first deer on the afternoon of November 13.

Celebrating a milestone harvest back at camp after years of dedication.

Field Notes & Harvest Summary

> Persistence in the deer woods is one of the truest tests of a hunter, and on the afternoon of November 13, Sara Uelmen's years of dedication paid off in unforgettable fashion. Hunting public state land near Horseshoe Lake Campground with her crossbow, Sara connected on this button buck to mark her very first whitetail harvest.

Earning a first deer after several seasons of putting in the time—especially on public ground—is a milestone every hunter remembers for a lifetime. Congratulations to Sara on an outstanding crossbow harvest and a well-deserved first deer on behalf of the Detroit Sportsmen's Congress.
