To enroll in this class, contact the DSC office at 586-739-3500. The next class is will be held in 2025.

Junior Shotgun

The 2024 DSC Junior Shotgun Program has completed it's year with stellar performances from our athletes.

Through diligent training sessions; fun shoots, conference, state and national shoots, they had accumulated 35 medals. There were 7 Bronze, 11 Silver and 17 Gold medals. As I look forward to this Scholastic Clay Target Program season, I envision new athletes joining our program as well as one or two new coaches.

Respectively Submitted,
Rick Stanfield

Junior Donations

Due to the successful trial of Scholastic Action Shooting Program this summer, we are moving forward with making the S.A.S.P. a permanent part of our junior programs.

To that end we are in need of some equipment the club does not currently possess. Specifically, we are looking for a number of Ruger 10/22 rifles and Mark Series 22 pistols. Additional items needed are red dot sights for the rifles and magazines. We need a minimum of five magazine per rifle or pistol. These items do not have to be new, just functional. So, if you have one taking up room in the gun safe, this may be the best way to make room for another gun. If you would like to donate any of the above items or cash toward there purchase, please contact the office or drop them off at the clubhouse. Firearms must go to the office and be prearranged before drop off.

Rifle

This month we continue our discussion of reloading ammunition for rifle shooting. As we discussed earlier, one of the major reasons for reloading ammunition is that you can make more accurate ammo yourself than you can buy off the shelf or at least at minimum you can make similar quality ammo for a lot less money. But how is this accomplished? The answer is “working up a load”. That is the topic for this month.

The first step “in working up a load” is to decide what the load is to be used for. For this discussion, let’s say you have a bolt action varmint rifle that shoots 223 Remington cartridges. You have found that it shoots the Hornady 53 grain V-max cartridges very well. This is a good place to start. At Graf and Sons, the factory ammo costs $1.37 per round. Hornaday bullets of this caliber only cost $0.22 each. The cartridge cases are free because you saved the brass from shooting the commercial ammo. Use any small rifle primers that you can find, around $0.09 each.

The only thing we have left to decide is the powder to use. For this, we need a reloading manual. Actually, having several recent reloading manuals will serve you well. Reloading manuals are filled with tons of good information about reloading in general and about specific cartridges. Since we are interested in Hornady bullets we will use the Hornady reloading book - “Hornady Handbook of Cartridge Reloading” (8th edition). We turn to the pages concerning the 223 Remington cartridge and we find the 53 grain Vmax bullet that we are interested in on page 163. On that page is a table listing 16 powders for reloading. Which one should you choose? The Reloading manual itself will make some suggestions. Hornady says on page 154 that “the powders that gave the most uniform velocities and best accuracy throughout the range of 22 caliber bullets were IMR 4198, VIHT N-130, VIHT N-135, and H322”. That’s a good place to start. Another is to ask fellow reloaders what they use. However, we need to temper those recommendations by what is available. I suggest you take the powder list from page 163 to the DSC Pro Shop and see what ones they have. Since they have it in stock, you decide on IMR 4198.

You see in the reloading book that there is a range of powder weights of IMR 4198 and the 53 grain VMAX bullet from 18.6 to 20.5 grains with corresponding velocities from 2800 to 3100 fps. What do you do now? Well, this is where the “work” in “working up a load” comes in. There are many methods for doing this. I will explain mine. The powder weight range is 1.9 grains. We want to divide this range up to find the optimal powder weight. I suggest you make 5 cartridges each of 18.6, 19.0, 19.5, 20.0 and 20.5 grains. You could use finer graduations such as 0.3 grains but you have to make a lot more ammo. I use 5 shots for each load. I think that 3 shots is not enough and 10 is way too many.

Now you can head to the range. Set targets up at your preferred yardage and fire 5 shot groups corresponding to each grain weight. Concentrate on making the smallest group possible. Don’t worry about where the groups are on the target. That can be corrected later by sight adjustment. Evaluate the group size. My method is to measure the extreme spread for 5 shots and for the best 4 of 5 shots. It likely will be clear which load has the smallest spread. If two adjacent powder weight groups are very good, you may want to revisit the range with finer graduations in the grain weights. Say the best two groups were 20 and 20.5 grains. You could work a second ladder using 0.2 grain increments from 19.9 to 20.5 to find the optimal load. By the way, Hornady notes that 20.5 grain is the maximum load. NEVER exceed the maximum load! Besides being unsafe, there is no reason for it. You will soon find that the most accurate load is rarely the maximum load. In the end you find that your most accurate load is 20.2 grains and the powder cost is about $0.10 a round.

You have now worked up a nice varmint load for your rifle. It shoots better than the factory ammo but the cost is only $0.41 a round compared to the factory ammo at $1.37.

Archery

October is the start of the archery deer season. Good luck to all the archery deer hunters this fall.

The Archery Committee did end the Archery 3D / Broadhead Combo league with their banquet last month. This was the last time for the broadhead option for the fall league. Previously, shooters could choose whether to shoot a 3D course or the broadhead course. The last few years nearly all shooters choose the 3D target option. Due to the amount of work required to set up the broadhead course, the committee voted to eliminate the broadhead option of the fall league going forward.

Last month also had the Barbeque Trifecta Archery 3D Shoot at DSC. This was a 3-leg event with Royal Oak Archers and Oakland County Sportsmen’s Club. This event did not turn out as well as expected. DSC only had 37 shooters versus the other venues had between 50 and 60 shooters. We have already had some discussions on how to improve turnout, assuming the event continues next year.

For coming events, open shooting Fridays begins Oct. 11, from 6-8 p.m. in the indoor range. The final Archery event for 2024 will be the Toys for Tots Archery indoor 3D shoot Dec. 1. Hope to see you there.

Campground

Great weather and good times were had by all during our Labor Day weekend festivities.

The young archers enjoyed a fun shoot with 3d target covered in balloons to pop. A petting zoo with chickens, ducks, sheep, a goat and an alpaca was provided by Chamberlain Pony Rides as well as 2 horses for pony rides around the ballfield.

Those wishing to cool off had the opportunity to sit in the dunk tank which made quite a splash with those wishing to dunk their parents, neighbors or even their children.

The family dance was an enjoyable night for all after watching the annual DSC closing ceremony , archery awards and the video slideshow of season.

We owe thanks to Kim Morgan, our activities director, and too many others to list. Its all of the volunteers that make this wonderful club of our work.

As a side note, you do not need to be a camper to join us for one of our holiday weekends. Your DSC membership allows you entrance and participation in any and all activities the DSC Campground has to offer. I write this hoping to see more members taking advantage of all the DSC has to offer. Bring the family, invite your friends or coworkers.

DETROIT SPORTSMEN'S CONGRESS GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING Sept. 4, 2024

President B. Saylor: Opened the meeting at 7 p.m. by recognizing the past presidents and life members present.

President Saylor then reported: Dequindre road project progressing on schedule with grading of south lane as prep for paving. Summer leagues & activities now winding down transitioning into our fall schedule. Campground also going into their fall window. Summer saw a number of projects completed with more still on the list for the future. Stressed that equipment needs to be cleaned before returning it to the barn. Stressed that it is important to vote in the upcoming national elections. Stressed the importance of members physically present at the general membership meeting – vs. via zoom.

1st Vice President: (J. Estes) Reminded that help is always needed. Clubhouse and range building decks/steps/ramps painting is now complete. Help is needed with Juengel road fence repairs; berm weed/bush trimming; and Delaney park tree trimming. Also reported: Cowboy match is Sept. 15, need help with set up day before. Wild bunch shoot Sept. 22, with set up help needed day before. Practice still on Saturdays 10 – 2, but will be shortened to 10 – 12 later this fall. Life member meeting Sept. 8. No sporting goods show this year.

2nd Vice President: (J. Rhodes) Thanked RO's for contributing as there were no major safety issues last month. Requested a safety committee rep from each committee to facilitate dissemination of safety information. Reminder to use equipment safely with all features working – report equipment issues promptly – and please return equipment clean. Personal safety gear is a must when using equipment. Be cognizant of the changing seasons as it's getting darker earlier. Falling leaves will accumulate and are slippery when wet. Mr. Rhodes is organizing a group to trim the berm vegetation and will send out an email for help.

Secretary's Report: (T. Crockatt) August general membership minutes published in the P&K, and also posted behind the bar.

Treasurer's Report: (R. Savo) The July financial report was reviewed, the highlights are: July: income = $67,620; expenses = $114,922; for a net loss = $(47,303). YTD: income = $764,208; expenses = $588,817; for net gain = $175,390. Kubota loan now down to $2,349. Key points regarding July's notable expenses and net loss: new inventory stocked in pro shop. Kitchen, bar, & clubhouse continue to operate in the red. New clubhouse roof costs ($15.6k) hit in July as reflected. Archery's expenses exceeded July income. Sporting clays received large shipment of targets; and education purchased ammo. No education classes (income) in July. Looking ahead we'll have taxes paid that will be reflected in the August report (expense of ~$35k).

Trustee: (T. Murphy) No trustee report – get committee budgets submitted. Pro shop will have new items next month in time for Christmas gifts. Special orders for laser engraved pens are now available: $20 (proceeds to the juniors).

Trustee: (E. Silarski) 2025 budgets were disseminated and due back by Nov. 1.
